

Morisoli-Borges Vineyard, Cabernet Sauvignon, Rutherford 2021

BACKGROUND

Taub Family Vineyards traces its roots back four generations—mere days after the repeal of Prohibition. Wine has always been at the heart of the family's story. Marc D. Taub, raised with a profound reverence for winemaking, inherited this passion from his grandfather Marty, a pivotal figure in the wine industry since the early 1930s and later, his father David. In 2013, Marc acquired Heritage Vintners in Napa Valley, now transformed as Taub Family Vineyards. With their namesake, Marc and his son Jake look to explore Napa's most dynamic sub-appellations and single vineyards to build their own storied cabernet house, curating wines from some of the Valley's most esteemed sites.

TERROIR & VINTAGE NOTES

The 2021 vintage was a redemption year for Napa growers and vintners alike. Following a wet start in January and February, the spring and summer saw largely mild and consistent temperatures with very few significant heat spikes. This allowed for even ripening and longer hang time, promoting optimal flavor development while maintaining freshness and acidity.

WINEMAKING & AGING

The grapes were hand-picked, whole cluster pressed, and barrel fermented with native yeast in 4- and 5-year-old Burgundian barrels. The wine did not undergo malolactic fermentation. Acid levels were brilliantly elevated, and the concentrated berries produced excellent fruit intensity and weight. The juice remained on the lees for 5 months with just a single batonnage.

TASTING NOTES

Aromatically, this wine bursts from the glass with a seductive mix of black cherry compote, cassis, cedar box, and Rutherford dust, woven with hints of licorice, lavender, and warm stones. On the palate, it's richly textured yet poised, with a seamless blend of dark berry fruit, mocha, and crushed rock minerality. The tannins are velvety but firm, carrying the wine through a long, resonant finish that hums with savory spice and graphite.
